

From: Flora Donovan
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 3:07pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I find it interesting that our state so small in population and political clout could be a leader in withdrawing from the Microsoft litigation. New Mexico acknowledged some time ago that a continuance of said litigation was not helpful to the people of New Mexico considering the cost to taxpayers as well as the cost to the country as a whole.

Let us put all this behind us Massachusetts and Utah and others. Perhaps the present recession could be helped to an end by a more friendly business environment.

Flora L. Donovan
A proud New Mexican